A two-bedroom raised ground floor apartment, located in the heart of Marylebone Village on a quiet residential street.

De Walden Street is widely considered one of the prettiest streets in Marylebone Village. This apartment has its own private entrance and front door and is laid out over the raised ground floor. The home has been fully refurbished and there are two double bedrooms, one en-suite bathroom, a second family bathroom, reception room and separate kitchen.

Venise. They don't take bookings there, you just turn up and can usually get a table.

The Royal Academy has a lovely members restaurant and a good café. Over the road from there is of course The Wolseley. For great Chinese food we recommend that you take a trip to Mr Chow's.

De Walden Street is a quiet side street just off Marylebone High Street, you can walk to Oxford Circus, Bond Street, Baker Street and Great Portland Street Tube Stations in 5-10 minutes.

The apartment is located a few moments from Marylebone High Street which has every sort of shop and restaurant. Our favourites are Fishworks on Marylebone High Street, the restaurant at the Wallace Collection, and you can find the best steak and chips at Relais de
